Krew Kool-Aid Code of Conduct

Krew Kool-Aid represents Kool-Aid Days and Kraft Foods products at all times. Because of this, Krew members will follow this set of conduct rules either in or out of the Kool-Aid Man suit:

- Always follow instructions when putting on and removing the Kool-Aid Man suit.
 - You must be between 5'6" and 6' tall and able to support the weight of the suit moving for at least 15 minutes to be inside the suit.
 - Always fold or store the suit after wearing according to directions. If the batteries need to be charged, plug them in.
 - Kool-Aid Man NEVERS speaks - he may wave, dance or move about but only in child-friendly ways.
 - Kool-Aid Man NEVER gestures or moves in any way that may be thought of as sexually suggestive, crude or vulgar.
 - When accompanying Kool-Aid Man, watch and alert for obstacles and walking hazards like curbs, steps, etc.
 - Always allow children and/or event participants access to Kool-Aid Man but help remind them not to pull or grab at the suit.
 - When accompanying Kool-Aid Man, Krew members should refrain from using foul language, talking loudly amongst themselves or otherwise distracting Kool-Aid Man from the event at hand.
 - When accompanying Kool-Aid Man, Krew members should dress in shirts provided by Kool-Aid Days or in conservative attire for the event - shirts should not reveal underwear, midriffs or cleavage. Tattoos and piercings should be covered. Shorts or pants should not reveal underwear. Heavy makeup and jewelry are inappropriate and represent a threat to the integrity of the Kool-Aid Man suit.
 - If you have agreed to participate at a specific event or at a specific time, it is very important that you are where you have been assigned at the right time. If you are unsure where to go or when to be there or if you have an emergency, please call the Krew Captain:
- Failure to follow this Code of Conduct will result in termination of your participation in Krew Kool-Aid.
