CONTEST RULES

- No experience necessary, and no residency requirements. Any child, age nine and under, may enter.
- There is no admission fee for audience members.
- A contestant’s age division is determined by his/her age the day of competition, August 11, 2018.
- Each contestant must wear a number sticker, provided by the contest, on their right chest and be ready to be introduced at 11:45 AM or when the introductions begin.
- No special attire is required – just wear whatever is appropriate for Kool-Aid Days.
- Kool-Aid CuteKids are natural. We encourage contestants to avoid makeup. No hair pieces allowed.
- Each CuteKid will be introduced individually, with all the entrants of one category introduced in sequence. Parents or guardians must complete an “emcee card” for each child’s introduction.
- Parents may aid younger contestants, tickling or giving other encouragement to get a smile, within reason.
- A panel of three judges will review all entries and award points based on a ten-point system. No scores will be revealed and all decisions by the volunteer judges are FINAL. All Kool-Aid CuteKids are winners and receive a participation ribbon. We invite the Overall Cutest Boy and Girl and Photogenic Grape winners to return to participate in the 2019 Kool-Aid Days Parade.
- To enter the Photogenic CuteKid category, bring a printed photo to the registration table. The child in the photo need not be present to win. Contestants may enter both the Photogenic and CuteKid Contest (separate entry fees). Submit one (1) photo per child (size: 4”X6” to max. 8”X10”). Photos will be reviewed by the CuteKid judging panel. Photos will be available for pickup following the awards ceremony ONLY and will not be mailed.

Registration and Contest will be in the Hastings City Auditorium. Winners will be announced from the Main Stage outside.
